

Internet Resources

Title and Link	Description
Inquiry Science in PreK	Smithsonian National Air and Space Museum - provides a foundation in science content and teaching methods for science inquiry in a preschool environment.
Project Wild	Provides interdisciplinary and hands-on, inquiry-based activities at relevant grade levels. They can be used indoors and out in urban, suburban and rural environments.
Explore the Outdoors	How parents can extend science learning. Includes nature craft activities, things to do outdoors, books.
Audubon	All things birds.
Cornell FeederWatch Cam	To see different birds in action in different places in NY.
The Cornell Lab of Ornithology Macaulay Library	Library of pictures, videos and sound clips of various birds (and other animals).
Cornell Lab Merlin App	Free app to identify the birds you see or hear.
Celebrate Urban Birds	Celebrate Urban Birds strives to co-create bilingual, inclusive, and equity-based community science projects that serve communities that have been historically underrepresented or excluded from birding, conservation, and citizen science.
New York State Department of Environmental Conservation	Find information on specific birds and endangered species of birds, as well as migration and resources for young birders.
New York State Museum	For all of the educators, caregivers, and students looking for engaging and educational activities to do right from home, look no further!
NYC Audubon	All things birds in New York City.