

Directions: Cut out the bird counters below (lamine for continued use). Use the counters to record data for bird observations. For example, place a counter in the nest each time the bird enters the nest. Have children count the counters and record the numeral on the following worksheet.

_____ birds are in the nest.

_____ birds are in the nest.