Zoom

1 hour of CTLE credit offered.

The Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages (OBEWL) of the New York State Education Department (NYSED) presents this last webinar in its 2024 Professional Learning Series: Classical Language Lesson Planning – From Unit Plan to Lesson Plans: Putting the Pieces Together. This webinar is offered free of charge for classical language educators and administrators working and studying in New York State educational institutions.

Webinar description: In this session, participants will learn how to develop thematic unit-based lesson plans aligned to the revised Classical Language standards. The presenter will demonstrate how lesson plans can move naturally from input to output to help students make continuous progress in developing their language proficiency and requisite cultural knowledge.

Registration process: All participants are encouraged to pre-register for this event. Pre-registration will close on Friday, December 13, 2024; there will be no same-day registrations. Once the registrant's email address has been verified as being from a New York State school, college, or university, an email confirming their registration will be sent. Twenty-four hours prior to the event, all registered individuals will receive login instructions with the link to join the webinar. Only pre-registered attendees will be eligible for a certificate documenting attendance and/or CTLE hours.
