of the New York State Education Department

presents:

Spiraling Instruction for Continued Proficiency Growth through Checkpoint B

Presenters: Bill Heller, Dr. Joanne O'Toole, Dr. Lori Langer de Ramirez

Webinar date & time: Tuesday, February 25th, 2025, 4:00-5:00 pm via Zoom

The Office of Bilingual Education and World Languages (OBEWL) of the New York State Education Department (NYSED) presents this next webinar in its 2025 Professional Learning Series: Spiraling Instruction for Continued Proficiency Growth through Checkpoint B. This webinar is offered free of charge for world language educators and administrators working and studying in New York State educational institutions. One (1) hour of CTLE credit offered.

Webinar description: Checkpoint B builds on proficiency attained in Checkpoint A and establishes a foundation for continued proficiency development. In this session, participants will examine ways to spiral instruction through Checkpoint B. The workshop will provide a brief overview of the performance indicators for Intermediate proficiency targets and consider themes that incorporate the four new Checkpoint B topics to provide additional cultural contexts. Attendees will also look at key curriculum elements including authentic text types appropriate for enacting Interpretive tasks and the language toolbox needed to carry out Interpersonal and Presentational language functions.

Registration process: All participants are encouraged to pre-register for this event. Pre-registration will close on Monday, February 24, 2024; there will be no same-day registrations. Once the registrant's email address has been verified as being from a New York State school, college, or university, an email confirming their registration will be sent. Twenty-four hours prior to the event, all registered individuals will receive login instructions with the link to join the webinar. Only pre-registered attendees will be eligible for a certificate documenting attendance and/or CTLE hours.
