1.0 GENERAL INFORMATION

1.1 SUMMARY

To implement the provisions of Education Law §3012-d as amended by Chapter 59 of the Laws of 2019 relating to annual professional performance reviews of classroom teachers and building principals, the New York State Education Department (“NYSED” or “Department”), strongly encourages local educational agencies (LEAs) to select teacher and principal practice rubrics from the Department’s List of Approved Teacher and Principal Practice Rubrics (“Approved List”). In limited circumstances, however, LEAs may apply for a variance to use a teacher and/or principal practice rubric other than those on the Approved List.

LEAs may use this application to request a variance to use: (1) an existing rubric that is self-developed, developed by a third party, or an adaptation of a rubric on the Department’s Approved List; or (2) a new, innovative rubric that will support their professional capacity to successfully implement teacher and principal evaluations. If an LEA’s variance application is approved, the LEA may use the practice rubric to implement teacher and principal evaluations in accordance with Education Law §3012-d as amended.

On April 13, 2015, the Assembly and Senate passed the New York State Budget for 2015-16 and signed into law a revised educator evaluation system for teachers and principals as Chapter 56 of the Laws of 2015, which created Education Law §3012-d. Education Law §3012-d was amended by the Legislature in Chapter 59 of the Laws of 2019 and signed by the Governor on April 12, 2019. During the December 2017 meeting of the Board of Regents, subparts 30-3.2 and 30-3.5 of the Rules of the Board of Regents were amended to adopt the 2015 Professional Standards for Educational Leaders with Certain New York Specific Modifications.

Education Law 3012-d as amended requires teachers and principals to be evaluated based on two categories: the Student Performance Category and the Observation/School Visit Category. The Observation/School Visit Category is made up of three subcomponents: required observations/school visits by supervisors or other trained administrators, required observations/school visits by impartial independent trained evaluator(s)<sup>1</sup>, and optional observations/school visits by trained peer educators. Section 30-3.9 of the Rules of the Board of Regents requires the Commissioner to evaluate teacher and principal practice rubrics based on the criteria outlined in this application.

1.2 BACKGROUND

The New York State school system is one of the most comprehensive educational systems in the country. It comprises 689 school districts, 37 BOCES, over 7,000 public/private elementary and secondary schools, including 246 charter schools, and serves the educational needs of over 3.1 million students. Additionally, there are currently over 220,000 certified public school teachers and administrators employed by New York State schools who directly support the educational needs and achievement of our student population.

Education Law §3012-d, as amended by the Laws of 2019, retains the performance evaluation system for classroom teachers and building principals. The evaluation system is designed to measure teacher and principal effectiveness based on performance, including measures of student growth and evidence of educator effectiveness in meeting the New York State Teaching Standards or the State's school leadership standards (Professional Standards for Educational Leadership: PSEL 2015 New York version). Under the law, New York State will differentiate teacher and principal effectiveness using four rating categories – Highly Effective, Effective, Developing, and Ineffective. Education Law §§3012-d(5)(a) and (b) require annual professional performance reviews (Educator Evaluation Plans) to result in a single teacher or principal effectiveness rating, which incorporates multiple measures of effectiveness. The results of the evaluations shall be a significant factor in employment decisions, including, but not limited to, promotion, retention, tenure determinations, termination, and supplemental compensation, as well as teacher and principal professional development (including coaching, induction support, and differentiated professional development).

Under the evaluation system, one category of teacher and principal evaluations shall be based on measures of student performance. Importantly, the law requires all measures of student performance to be based on student growth in up to two subcomponents:

- 1) required measures of student growth on State assessments or other Department-approved assessments, and
- 2) (if locally selected) optional measures of student growth.

For classroom teachers and building principals the required subcomponent of the Student Performance Category is based on a SLO consistent with a goal-setting process determined or developed by the Commissioner. Under the new system, SLO targets must represent, at a minimum, one year's worth

<sup>1</sup> During the June 2016 Board of Regents meeting, Subparts 30-3.4 and 30-3.5 of the Rules of the Board of Regents were amended to provide for a waiver from the requirement that at least one observation/school visit be conducted by one or more impartial independent trained evaluators selected and trained by the district. Waivers are available on an annually renewable basis for rural school districts, school districts with only one registered school pursuant to §100.18 of the Commissioner's regulations that, due to the size and limited resources of the school district, is unable to obtain an independent evaluator within a reasonable proximity without an undue burden, and to other districts that can demonstrate that compliance with the independent evaluator requirement would result in a financial hardship, lacks professionally trained staff to comply with the requirement, has a large number of teachers and/or where compliance could impact safety and management of a building. Such waivers must be applied for on an annual basis.

of expected growth for individual students. In cases where the district/BOCES elects, through collective bargaining, to use the optional student growth subcomponent, such measure may be:

- (A) A second SLO, provided that this SLO is different from that used in the required subcomponent;
- (B) A growth score based on a statistical growth model, where available, for either State-created or -administered assessments or State-designed supplemental assessments;
- (C) A measure of student growth, other than an SLO, based on State-created or -administered assessments or State-designed supplemental assessments;
- (D) A performance index based on State-created or -administered assessments or State-designed supplemental assessments;
- (E) An achievement benchmark on State-created or -administered assessments or State-designed supplemental assessments; or Any other collectively bargained measure of student growth or achievement included in the LEA's evaluation plan. The weightings and scoring ranges for both subcomponents of the Student Performance Category are set forth in Subpart 30-3 of the Rules of the Board of Regents.

The remaining portion of teacher and principal evaluations shall be based on multiple measures of effectiveness. This includes the extent to which the educator demonstrates proficiency in meeting New York State's teaching standards or the leadership standards. The methods of gathering evidence for teachers and principals must include observations/school visits by the educator's supervisor or another trained administrator and observations/school visits by impartial independent trained evaluator(s). Districts also have the option to include observations/school visits by trained peer educators<sup>2</sup>. Importantly, the new law requires that teacher and principal performance in this category be assessed based only on those components of the selected practices rubrics that are observable. Further, pursuant to Education Law §3012-d (6), the following elements are not eligible to be used in any evaluation subcomponent:

- a. evidence of student development and performance derived from lesson plans, other artifacts of teacher practice, and student portfolios, except for student portfolios measured by a state-approved rubric where permitted by the department;
- b. use of an instrument for parent or student feedback;
- c. use of professional goal-setting as evidence of teacher or principal effectiveness;
- d. any district or regionally developed assessment that has not been approved by the department; and
- e. any growth or achievement target that does not meet the minimum standards as set forth in regulations of the Commissioner adopted hereunder.

<sup>2</sup> During the September 2015 Board of Regents meeting, Subpart 30-3.4 and 30-3.5 of the Rules of the Board of Regents were amended to provide for a waiver from the requirement that at least one observation/school visit be conducted by one or more impartial independent trained evaluators selected and trained by the district for rural school districts or school districts with only one registered school pursuant to §100.18 of the Commissioner's regulations that, due to the size and limited resources of the school district, is unable to obtain an independent evaluator within a reasonable proximity without an undue burden. Where a waiver has been granted, the district must instead conduct such observations/school visits utilizing one or more evaluators selected and trained by the district.

For additional information on New York State's evaluation system, including information on the Commissioner's regulations, see the New York State Education Department website at <https://www.nysed.gov/educator-quality/new-york-state-evaluation-system>.

2.0 SPECIFICATIONS

2.1 ELIGIBLE APPLICANTS

This application is for those LEAs or a consortium of LEAs<sup>3</sup> requesting a variance to use a teacher and/or principal practice rubric other than those rubrics on the Department's Approved List for use in the Teacher Observation/Principal School Visit category of the APPR.

2.2 TYPES OF VARIANCES AND APPROVAL PERIOD

LEAs<sup>4</sup> can request a variance to use: (1) an existing rubric (i.e., a rubric that is already in use by the LEA) that is self-developed, developed by a third party, or an adaptation of a rubric on the Department's Approved List; or (2) a new, innovative rubric that will support their professional capacity to successfully implement teacher and principal evaluations. If an LEA's variance application is approved, the LEA may use the practice rubric to implement teacher and principal evaluations in accordance with Education Law §3012-d, as amended.

Existing Rubric

If applying to use an existing rubric that is self-developed, developed by a third party, or an adaptation of a rubric on the Department's Approved List, applicants must establish that the proposed rubric meets ALL of the approval criteria outlined in this application (see §3.6 of this application), and must also demonstrate:

- evidence that the LEA has made a significant investment in the rubric, particularly in training and implementation; AND
- evidence that the LEA has a history of using the rubric that would justify continued use of that rubric. This includes evidence that:
  - the LEA's use of the rubric, to date, has generated differentiated ratings and assessments of educator skill and proficiency; AND
  - the degree of differentiation in the ratings is justified by student achievement results.

In general, the Department discourages LEAs from making any adaptations to other providers' rubrics. Any change by an LEA to the content of a rubric on the Department's Approved List (including deletions, additions, or other edits) constitutes an adaptation for which a variance would be required.

<sup>3</sup> An application for a rubric variance may be made by an individual LEA or a consortium of LEAs including a group of individual school districts, BOCES, or a group of districts under a single BOCES. Where individual districts seek to apply as a consortium, the application should be made by a lead district with reference to other members of the consortium. Where component districts of a single BOCES wish to apply, the application should be made by the BOCES with reference to the component districts. **Please note that: 1) Acceptance of an application from a consortium of LEAs by SED will be made on a case-by-case basis; and 2) Acceptance of an application from a consortium of LEAs does not signify approval of the application itself.

<sup>4</sup> References to LEAs hereafter refers to either an individual LEA applicant or a consortium of LEAs.

The LEA is responsible for securing any necessary approvals or permissions from the rubric provider, prior to making any adaptations.

An LEA is NOT required to request a variance for procedural differences in implementation of a rubric on the Department's Approved List. Procedural differences include, but are not limited to:

- providing additional or more detailed guidance on how to implement the rubric that is not available from the original rubric provider; or
- maintaining all components of the rubric but choosing to emphasize certain components of the rubric over others.

The use of an existing rubric will be approved for a period of three years, at which time an LEA must request a renewal if they wish to continue to use the rubric. Details for the renewal process will be provided prior to the expiration date for all approved variances.

New, Innovative Rubric

If applying to use a new, innovative rubric that is newly developed, applicants must establish that the proposed rubric meets ALL of the approval criteria outlined in this application (see § 3.6 of this application), and must also provide:

- a training and implementation plan including, but not limited to, the LEA's plan for ensuring inter-rater reliability; AND
- a plan for collecting evidence that demonstrates:
  - the LEA's use of the rubric generates differentiated ratings and assessments of educator skill and proficiency; AND
  - the degree of differentiation in the ratings is justified by student achievement results.

The use of a new, innovative rubric will be provisionally approved for a two-year period, after which time an LEA must request a renewal, if they wish to continue to use the rubric. Details for the renewal process will be provided prior to the expiration date for all approved variances, but will require that the LEA provide the following information in order for the Department to consider renewal:

- evidence that the LEA's use of the rubric has supported its professional capacity to successfully implement teacher and principal evaluations (i.e., that the training and use of the new, innovative rubric has allowed the LEA to more efficiently or effectively evaluate teachers or principals than in the past); AND
- evidence that the LEA's use of the rubric has generated differentiated ratings and assessments of educator skill and proficiency, using rating categories that are aligned (or easily convertible) to NYSED's four rating categories; AND
- an analysis demonstrating that the degree of differentiation in the ratings is justified by student achievement results.

2.3 DISQUALIFICATION OF RUBRIC VARIANCES

Approval of a variance may be withdrawn for good cause, including, but not limited to, a determination made by the Commissioner that:

- (i) The rubric is in noncompliance with one or more of the criteria for approval set forth in this variance application, or is in noncompliance with the Commissioner's regulations;

- (ii) The rubric is not identifying meaningful and/or observable differences in performance levels across schools and classrooms; and/or
- (iii) High-quality research calls into question the correlation between high performance on this rubric and positive student learning outcomes.

2.4 RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

NYSED reserves the right to: (1) reject any or all applications received in response to the RFQ; (2) withdraw the RFQ at any time, at the agency's sole discretion; (3) disqualify any provider whose conduct and/or application fails to conform to the requirements of the RFQ and/or any applicable laws or regulations; (4) seek clarifications of applications; (5) use application information obtained through the State's investigation of a provider's qualifications, experience or ability, and any material or information submitted by the provider in response to the agency's request for clarifying information in the course of evaluation and/or selection under the RFQ; (6) during the application period, amend the RFQ specifications to correct errors or oversights, or to supply additional information, as it becomes available; (7) during the application period, direct providers to submit application modifications addressing subsequent RFQ amendments; (8) change any of the scheduled dates; (9) waive any requirements that are not material; (10) negotiate with the successful provider within the scope of the RFQ in the best interests of the state; (11) require clarification at any time during the qualification process and/or require correction of arithmetic or other apparent errors for the purpose of assuring a full and complete understanding of a provider's application and/or to determine a provider's compliance with the requirements of the RFQ.

2.5 APPROVAL PERIOD OF VARIANCE

A teacher or principal practice rubric that is approved under this RFQ is approved for use over a maximum of three (3) school years for an existing rubric and two (2) years for a new and innovative rubric. On a showing by the LEA of the effectiveness of the instruments as tools for evaluation, the variance can be renewed for a period of up to five (5) years. On a similar showing of effectiveness, further renewals can be granted for the same period.

3.6 APPLICATION REVIEW AND SCORING PROCESS

General Review and Scoring Process

Applications will each be independently reviewed and evaluated by two members of the Evaluation Committee using the criteria specified in this application. Applicant responses on Form B of the Variance Application will be used to determine the LEA’s adherence to the established approval criteria. A Variance Application will be approved only if the application meets ALL the criteria in Part I and Part II.

In cases where the two reviewers do not reach consensus as to whether an application meets the Part I and/or Part II criteria, a third reviewer will review the Part(s) on which there is disagreement and the majority determination will govern.

I. Review and Scoring of Teacher Practice Rubric Variance Applications (Form B-T)

Applications to use a teacher practice rubric will be reviewed and scored as outlined below.

- i. Applications must meet all of the criteria in Part I (i.e., receive a “Yes” to each of the approval criteria) in order to be considered further in the review process. Failure to provide satisfactory evidence in Part I will result in a rejection of the application and a denial of the variance request.

Part I

Question Category	Expectations for Responses
(Tables 1.1 and 1.2 – see Form B-T)	Statement is clear and thorough and responds to each criterion. For each established criterion, the application will be scored as follows: Yes – Rubric demonstrates the established criterion No – Rubric does not demonstrate the established criterion

TEACHER AND PRINCIPAL PRACTICE RUBRIC VARIANCE APPLICATION*TEACHER PRACTICE RUBRIC
NARRATIVE - PART II

- I. If requesting a variance to use an existing teacher practice rubric (self-developed, developed by a third party, or an adaptation of a Department-approved rubric), respond to the following questions.

Information about the rubric:

  - a. Provide a rationale that clearly articulates the reasons for the use of the submitted rubric instead of a Department-approved rubric, including how the use of the submitted rubric is directly relevant to improving teaching practices and student learning. In addition, if requesting a variance to use an existing rubric that is an adaptation of a Department-approved rubric, specify what adaptations have been made to the Department-approved rubric, including a justification for the adaptations.
  - b. Describe the LEA's history of using the submitted rubric for one or more of the following purposes: evaluations; planning for differentiated professional development; and employment decisions, including, but not limited to, promotion, retention, tenure determinations, termination, and supplemental compensation.

Significant investment in the rubric:

2. Provide evidence of the LEA's investment in the submitted rubric, including, but not limited to, investments of money and staff time in developing or procuring the rubric, training educators to effectively use the rubric, actual use of the rubric, and analysis and application of the resulting ratings. Include in your response details regarding budget expenditures and the LEA's training and implementation that have occurred to date (e.g., training timeframes, methodologies, providers, targeted audiences, etc.), including calibration of educators, in order to ensure inter-rater reliability and effective use of the rubric. Use Form C, to detail expenditures and rating summary and include additional information, if necessary.

History of use that justifies continuation:

  - a. Provide evidence that the use of the submitted rubric to date has generated differentiated ratings and assessments of teacher skill and proficiency. This evidence uses the rating categories that are aligned (or easily convertible) to NYSED's four rating categories and includes at least one year of data showing the number and percentage of educators assigned to each score category.
  - b. Provide an analysis that demonstrates that the distribution of teachers in different levels of proficiency is justified by student achievement results.

TEACHER PRACTICE RUBRIC
NARRATIVE - PART II

II. If requesting a variance to use a new, innovative teacher practice rubric, respond to the following questions.

Information about the rubric:

1. a. Provide a rationale that clearly articulates the reasons for the use of the submitted rubric instead of a Department-approved rubric, including how the use of the submitted rubric is directly relevant to improving teaching practices and student learning.
- b. Identify research and/or literature on change processes, school improvement, adult learning, and development, and/or best practices in teaching and learning that informed the identification of existing gaps in current rubrics and the development of the submitted rubric as a new, innovative tool. Explain how the submitted rubric is innovative.

Example of a response describing how the submitted rubric is innovative:

Our district works with experts at Tripod who provided us with a student survey that the Measures of Effective Teaching (MET) project has shown to be predictive of teacher value-added results. We have also engaged with a professor from our local University's teacher preparation program (an expert in the curriculum and instruction field) and a team of district educators to devise and field test a rubric that matches the most predictive indicators from the MET student survey to the related elements in the NYS teaching standards and have built a 4-point HEDI rubric around each element. The rubric is much shorter than most of the ones commonly used today and though it was developed for classroom observation, field tests that have already been conducted show promising differentiation among teachers, and both principals and teachers say it is understandable and the results give valuable, actionable feedback. With the included data, we show how this rubric meets the criteria in the variance application and we present a 2-year plan to pilot the rubric more broadly in order to gather data for full approval.

Plan for training and implementation:

2. Provide a training and implementation plan that addresses the following:
  - training timeframes, methodologies, providers, and targeted audiences;
  - allocation of resources such as time, money, personnel;
  - training to ensure consistency and accuracy of evaluators;
  - mechanisms that will be used to monitor implementation and inform any necessary mid-course adjustments; AND
  - plan for monitoring evaluators' use of the rubric to ensure ongoing inter-rater reliability and inform any needed additional calibration training.

Plan for collecting evidence:

3. Describe the LEAs<sup>8</sup> plan for collecting evidence to demonstrate:

<sup>8</sup> In the case of consortium applications, the lead applicant should include a description of any data sharing agreements and/or other processes that will be used with participating LEAs to share and protect personally identifiable information.

- b. that the distribution of teachers in different levels of proficiency is justified by student achievement results; AND
- c. that the use of this teacher practice rubric cultivates continual professional growth and/or achievement of effective teaching practices that are directly relevant to improving student learning.
